

Vision for 2030

Creating advanced materials and technologies, becoming a highly profitable company that is flexible to environmental changes, and contributing to the development of a highly recycling-oriented society

In May 2023, the Toho Titanium Group formulated its Vision for 2030. It reflects our commitment to sustainable corporate management and social contribution from a long-term perspective.

BE2030